Political Activism

Dr. Martirosyan has been active in Armenia's political life since early-2016. He has been at the frontline of the so-called "Velvet Revolution" in 2018, supporting the Prime Minister Pashinyan and has become one of the most visible public figures in Armenia.

However, he turned into the harshest critic of Pashinyan's rule, citing his disagreement with the policies of Pashinyan government's complicity with Moscow's rule in Armenia and the failure to deliver on promises made to the people of Armenia.

Dr. Martirosyan is actively advocating for the liberation of Armenia from under the Russian control and for a strong alliance with the West, notably with the United States.

With an ever-growing following, and a strong, distinctive public voice, more than a thousand interviews, including the international ones, such as Le Monde, Radio France International, Dr. Martirosyan is a prolific public speaker known for his direct, blunt, and convincing style.

In 2021, he was elected as a Board Member of the National-Democratic Alliance party.

Dr. Martirosyan is a dual U.S.-Armenian national.
